19th November 2022:
BASO Skills Day & BASOt AGM

20th – 21st November 2022:
BASO Annual Scientific Meeting

20th November:
BASO AGM

Dear colleague,

We are pleased to invite you to BASO's 49th Annual Scientific Conference at the prestigious venue of The Law Society in London on 20th-21st November.

The meeting is themed on – Multidisciplinary Cancer Management – Evolving Role of Surgical Oncology.

We have an excellent programme which will be facilitated by the National and International experts in the field of cancer surgery. Our guest speakers include Professor Isabel-Teresa Rubio, Miss Jennifer Rusby, Professor Irving Taylor, Professor Richard Heald, Professor Peter Sagar, Professor Mike Dixon, Professor Dame Sue Hill, Professor George Hanna, Professor Mark Emberton and many more.

This year our meeting is also open to all those trainees, consultants, allied healthcare professionals, nurses and medical students who wish to gain an insight in how to advance their surgical careers.

There will be symposias, Debate session, roundtable discussion session, and our prestigious plenary award orations with an audience with our keynote speakers & award recipients. The meeting is designed to provide a unique environment for interdisciplinary learning and cross-fertilisation of ideas, by bringing together delegates from all cancer disciplines and offering excellent networking opportunities.

We will also host BASO Trainees/Skills Day on 19th November.

The meeting will focus on 'multidisciplinary cancer management' with programme designed to support the learning & educational needs of our junior colleagues. There will be interactive sessions including speed-mentoring, case-based discussions and much more. We will be hosting our portfolio of abstract prize sessions open to our Trainees, Medical Students and AHP colleagues.

We look forward to welcoming you to our first face-2-face meeting following the pandemic.

With Best Wishes,

Zaed Hamady
President, BASO~ACS
